

Karen's Declaration of Nonviolence and Independent Sovereignty

I declare I am an independent sovereign individual, whose power and authority is derived directly from Grand Central Source Origin Point of Creation, and the ensuing Mindspring of the Prime Creator. I claim my unalienable right to live, cultivate, pray, practice and serve in honor of the Divine, provided it does not cause harm, loss or injury to others.

I am an extension of the great mystery born natural unto this terra firma, a natural being, a spirit embodied entity that submits to no metastatic artificial matrix that is governed by use of the threat of violence and that which is anti-life.

The virus of fear that creates violence in this realm creates a disassociation between the brothers and sisters who also emerged and were immediately blindsided by the circumstances of the virus. Held apart by their perceived differences, the idea that the other is somehow responsible for the circumstances that bind us in some way. This virus influences the mind to perceive threat and separation between self and other. To respond in kind is to bond with the virus and perpetuate the effects in material form.

“Evoking the presence of great compassion, let us fill our hearts with our own compassion – towards ourselves and towards all living beings.

Let us pray that all living beings realize that they are all brothers and sisters, all nourished from the same source of life.

- Buddhist Prayer”

Violence cannot be ended by stifling thoughts or actions, as it is the action taken in powerless disconnect. A trainee of Nonviolence honors a commitment to maintaining their connection to Divinity and remembering the truth of vibration and its eternal existence, and evolve past the thinly veiled cannibalism of fear-based domination which threatens our world with extinction. We are at a turning point, where we must either become super conscious or cease to exist. We cannot live life afraid, with a loaded gun in our head and Intent to use it. It's the weakest tool or option for our survival. Our eternal souls cannot afford this paradigm, for what we do not know and are unable to know, will offer a reckoning if it should happen, of things which cannot be undone. A heavier weight that a moment could allow me to process. Our greatest tool against the virus is to stand in Divinity and have courage and knowing, and demonstrate the exercise of Eternal Soul, in order to disarm the virus. The virus responds to the belief it is under attack. The virus leaves us weak and powerless and behaving like cornered animals. The counter balance to the virus is universal unconditional compassion.

“Creations are numberless, I vow to free them.

Delusions are inexhaustible, I vow to transform them.

Reality is boundless, I vow to perceive it.

The awakened way is unsurpassable, I vow to embody it.”
